TAX ATTORNEY

Wood LLP seeks a tax attorney with two to eight years of tax law experience. We are a small but prominent tax law firm with a sophisticated practice serving individuals, public and private companies, law and accounting firms, and foreign and domestic investors. Our work is challenging, dynamic and diverse. We write extensively about tax law in national publications.

The firm provides controversy representation across a wide spectrum of tax matters as well as planning and tax opinions. We provide tax advice to individuals, businesses, litigants and law firms, residency and expatriation advice, expert witness services concerning tax issues. We handle administrative tax controversies and tax litigation nationwide.

To be considered, please send a resume and cover letter. Applicants may thereafter be asked to submit writing samples and transcripts.
